You're not that easy to break

To have deflected the first strike...

Oh...

Even having used an skill

I've lost 10% HP

ズキ ズキ

Don't be so full of yourself, declaring the end

It doesnt seem to be enough to induce a "break Arm"

来る!!

So be it

Sticking to the defence?

Well, let's see if you can endure the next one?

sfx: gush

Who told you anything about defence?

sfx: ooooo

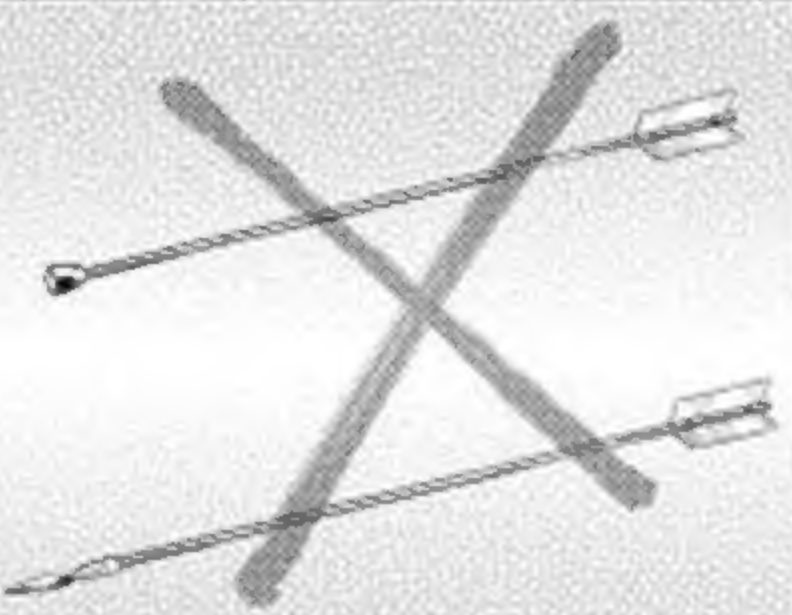
And the second one, skills become useless

The first one being it cannot fire arrows with enhanced offensive abilities



That being said, this "Secret another bow" is not without its flaws

That's enough, it's time I sent you to your gods

Even after I used such art...

Did you change the trajectory Of your Shield Charge..?

You, living, call to your gods for anything

I guess, you cherish them greatly?

That's why I'm going to send you to those gods of yours!

What do you mean.. gods?

Go ahead!!

...so

stx: bang

stx: bash

There are no gods in this world

If there were, we wouldn't have to, no matter how ugly and laughable, be struggling to make a living

... In this world ...

Only human willpower of yours!!

Look closely!!

Then show me that willpower of yours!!

sfx: "Triangle shoot!!"

トライアングルシュート!!

What..?

Gah!

Relying on the true fairy magic, chanted in fairy language is my only bet...

At this rate, I'm going to lose

Chanting time is extremely long and in case of a failure there is an MP penalty, I won't be able to use any potions for some time

True fairy magic, when pronounced using fairy language is about 150% more effective

Oh, Fairies, please heed my word and grant me my wish

I'm in a checkmate situation now, so it's my last resort

I pledge a part of my magic power and soul power to the great fairy king to grant me divine protection this once

I adress you with the words of friendship and desire to call to the fairy ruler

Stop that chanting !!

This chant is to become my oath, I will pledge the honour and glory of this victory to the fairy king, as I seek for fairy king's support

There you are...

With the divine protection and magic power, I will plunge the enemy of my master into great pain and despair

Even if you finish, nothing will come of it!!

With this contract I beseech this one time for a miracle to appear before my eyes!!

I am called Earth!! I am the 87th generation Fairy Queen's champion!!

My desire is to make a contract with the fairy king to grant

BEAUTIFAMILY.NET

Well done

You've won, master

!!

Andre ... is it you?

Yes.... Beofre my soul disappears, I can show my true face to you, master

In the little time I have left

I see..

So I could grant you wish after all?

EZALDFAMILY

Except for freeing me of demonic posession

I'm being recognised, so it's plenty...

Yes, to the greatest extent so

It was mean, you know..

Though laying my hopes in you, master, I didn't expect a solo player to produce enough skill

Ah, yes, I was in despair back then

...by the way, are you always glittery?

It's been worn by the long years, but it should be worth a good amount of money as an antiquity

With this I entrust my sword to you

And...so, we could be talking for much longer, but it seems the time has come

So, this is my reward ...

I see, so don't mind me taking it

... also

Though master said that "There are no gods in this world, I believe there are

Master has stopped my from turning into a monster completely

And not just that

My brothers in arms came to to greet me

...Andre, I've got a request for you

Human lifespan is really short

BEZALD FAMILY

At last, I'm coming to where everyone is

If god really exists, he should have enough money to grant that

And don't forget me some nice wine

So, reserve me a nice place on the other side

[A Knight's Sword of an Ancient Knight]
A knight blade, equipped by a high-level knight in a glorious empire of the past. After being worn by years, now being an antiquity has no practical value
Effect: Attack +120
Unique Property: Target is obliterated in one hit
